WEEKLY CAMP NEWSLETTER

Overture with the Arts' (OWTA) Youth Musical Theatre Summer Program reaches the end of Week 6, and boy, was it a good week! We are in full show mode, and all the props and costumes have been added in rehearsal. Practice makes perfect, and with only a week left until the big day, we have a smooth 40 minute show (almost) ready to be performed! Now it's all a matter of polishing up those scene transitions and costume changes. Our campers have learned how to handle their props, where to find their costumes, and backstage etiquette. Next week, we'll run the show with costumes and lighting on the big stage. It's gonna be great!

CAMP HIGHLIGHTS

BEFORE BEDTIME: A FAIRYTALE MIXUP

Phew! Doing run through after run through can get pretty exhausting. But our campers are up to the task and power through it every time. It almost makes that water breaks that much more satisfying. Shoutout to Abby and Chloe for remembering their cues and stage exits! Our awesome staff members Steph, Becky, Tricia, and Jordann are always present to take notes and give positive and constructive feedback. We want to prepare our campers as much as possible for rehearsal with microphones and on a much bigger space. It'll take a lot of work and effort, but it will be very much worth it in the end. We can't wait!

We're getting better and better at singing and dancing at the same time. Our vocals have been polished and all solos sound fantastic! We never forget to do warm-ups though! They are very important to make sure our voices are ready for the stage!

At last, the final dance has been taught and fully memorized! We have one final touch to add to it...but that's for us to know and for you to find out when you come see the show on August 17th! We've integrated all our props in the dances, and it's a lot harder than it looks to remember everything. Thank goodness we have talented campers with amazing memories!

CAMPER OF THE WEEK

The Camper of the Week for Week 6 is Theon!

Theon has emerged and exploded into the world of arts! He has shown true interest in singing, dancing, and acting, and we can easily say he is one of our most dedicated campers. He knows his all his cues, lines, and moves! We're lucky to have him in the show! Go, Theon, Go!

Each week, we draw a name out of a hat to select the Camper of the Week. Stay tuned for next week's amazing camper!

SUMMER BREEZE MUSIC SERIES

Every Friday until August 10 we're showcasing local artists! Come support local talent at OWTA's 6th and final Summer Breeze concert at Starbucks in Chapters Pointe-Claire! The show begins at 7:00pm and is free to attend.
